George Street, the Canadian, were killed by Eskimos, reached here in an official report from H. J. Demors, head of the mounted police post at Fort Churchill. The report is based on information gathered by sergeant Edgerton, who was fold the story by Kahmoke, an Eskimo living near Shultz lake who had it from Aku-Lak the lake, who had it from Aku-Lak, the Eskimo guide to Bathurst Inlet. Radford and Street, the report says, had trouble with an Eskimo who had been employed as a dog driver a Bathurst Inlet for the journey into the Arctic zone and who at the last moment refused to go. Street took a dog whip and started beating the Eskimo, who attacked him. Radford rushed to Street's rescue and the native plunged a spear into Radford's back, killing him instantly. Street started for his rifte but before he could reach it a mean was driven through his back and mear was driven through his back and

ROAD WORKERS SAY FOOD UNFIT TO EAT

Go in Body to Engineer in Charge and Threaten to Quit Unless Better Meals Are Furnished.

Bisbee, Ariz., Sept. 12 .- Forty-five men employed on county road work in Sulphur Springs valtey appeared in a body before the engineer in charge and gave notice that they would drop their tools 24 hours later unless radical imation of Miners. Attempts to interfere with non-federation men going to work and disturbing the pasce were charged against the women and two of the men.

Terzich was jailed after a wordy clash with an efficer and probably will be released.

The strikers and the women were noisy and apparently in an ugly mood. Hundreds of them marched into Calumet from the Kewcenaw county mines to the north and each appearance of saidlers and deputtes brought out an outburst of hooting. Deputtes in automobiles and mounted and foot soiders prevented serious disorder.

Trouble was feared at the mine shafts and at each of them deputtes were stationed in force. The strikers were kept on the move by the cavalry.

COLORADO MINERS STILL.

CONSIDER STRIKE PLANS benver, Colo. Sept. 11.—"The miners in the southern Colorado coal fields will, decide whether a strike shall be called and, if so, will shape the policy to be pursued by the officials in charge." This, in effect, was the statement made today by John P. White, insternational president of the United Mine Workers of America.

According to president of the United Mine Workers of America.

According to president white, the miners will decide what course they shall pursue at the three days' convention of district No, 15, which opens in Trinidad Monday, September 15, and the decision probably will hings on the operators' acceptance or rejection of the invitation of the miners' officials to confer on points in dispute.

DOUGLAS TO FORCE CLEANUP CAMPAIGN

Copper Queen Smelter Organizes Safety First Association; Women to Lift Country Club Debt.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 12.—The city health board has ordered a general clean-ing up of Douglas for the week ending September 17. Prosecutions are promised in case the order is not obeyed The city is already showing betterment of condition as a result of the order. Special wagons have been put on in the garbage service to collect the weeds, trash, etc., from the various premises in the city limits.

A safety first association has been organized by the employes of the Copper Queen smelter. Both safety and first aid to the injured work have been car-ried on at the smelter for sevral months, but there has been no regular organiza-tion heretofore. The central committee, as appointed by general manager S. W. French, consists of Forrest Rutherford, chairman; W. E. McKeehan, safety inspector and secretary; A. K. Adamson, A. D. Coppers Join in the Upswing-Gains of a Point Are Numerous.

NOTE—All market news on this page reflects closing sale prices (unless buy or bid be specified) Friday, Sept. 12, 1913.

New York, Sept. 12.—Technical con-litions favored a brisk advance in stocks, which continued through the orenoon. There was nothing in the lay's news to stimulate the market and the rise apparantly was due to that Buying kept pace with the improve-ment in sentiment, and the market be-gan to answer to a rehewal of opera-tions by large speculators. The out-look for a large wheat yield was re-sponsible for the demand for the west-ern stocks. Coppers joined in the up-swing. Gains of a point were numer-ous.

ern stocks. Coppers joined in the upswing. Gains of a point were numerous.

Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific continued to rise, but other active shares did not improve much above their morning prices. The influence of the "melon" rumor was the most potent factor in the exceptional activity and strength of Union Pacific. The price mounted to 158%, or more than four points above yesterday's closing, and nine since the extra dividend rumor circulated.

The bull market got under full headway late in the afternoon and the demand for stocks became more varied. Union Pacific added another point to its gain, touching 159%, and Southern Pacific advanced two points.

The market closed stendy; realizing sales caused half point reactions in the final dealings. The general rise was carried still further in the last hour with considerable strength in glit edged industrial stocks. All of the usual favorites responded in striking fashion to the growth of optimism, advances running from two to three points in numerous cases.

RAINS POSTPONE BAPTIST MEETING

Will Be Held at Pecos Instead of at Fort Stockten; Land Appraisers Visit Loving County.

Pecos, Tex., Sept. 12.—Heavy rains of the week made it necessary to postpone the convention of the Pecos Valley District association of the Eaplist church, scheduled for this week at Fort Stockton. A large crowd had made preparations to drive through the country by auto, but the downpour that visited this section made this impossible. After some telephonic consultations had been held over long distance wires, it was decided that the meeting should be postponed for two weeks, when the association will meet with the Baptists of Pecos, and the regular program will be carried out insofar as practicable.

Land commissioner J. T. Robison and the state board of appraisers of school land forfeited July 2, and subject to repurchase under an act of the regular session of the legislature, spent a night in Pecos, and left Wednesday morning for a visit over Loving county, returning to Pecos late Wednesday might. Heavy rains have returded the trip to some extent, and will throw the board behind a little in its itinerary, but in the three weeks that they have been out, they have covered all the school land counties of west Texas east of the Pecos river, with the exception of Crane county and a part of ast of the Pecos river, with the ex-

Lower Prices For Hogs Cause Setback in the Provision Market.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 12.—Just a flash of strength showed itself today in wheat. Then the market gave way under selling by large commission concerns and private wire houses. The opening was unchanged to be higher. The ensuing decline carried prices down.

The close was nervous at a net advance of 1/2 to 1/4 to 1/4 c.

General rains weakened corn. There were also general predictions that no more hot weather would be experienced this season. Prices at the outset were unchanged to 1/2 to 1/4 c off, and a further drop followed.

The close was nervous, 1/4 to 1/4 c under last night.

Speculators hammered the oats market downward. Fear of Canadian imports gave the bears an advantage.

Lower prices for hogs made the provision market easy. The first sales were a shade to 1/4 to 10 cents cheaper and there was a subsequent additional setback.

BUSTER, FIREMEN'S

MASCOT, IS KILLED Dog Which Always Attended Fires, Is Crushed Beneath Wheels of Henry Auto Truck.

"Buster," the dog who for the past four months has been attending all the fires, lost his life in responding to the firs Friday morning at 2 oclock at 1202 Fifth street. The big auto truck ran over him breaking his back. The police later shot the dog.

"Buster," was a black water Spaniel, and belonged to Cap. Jim Sullivan, of the central fire department. He was always the first on the auto, when the fire whistle blew, and he rode to every fire. There were never any off days for "Buster." During his service he remained at the station every day. At the fires, the dog, if he were not kept out, would go into the burning dwel-

Friday morning, when the alarm sounded. Buster, as was his custom, was the first one on the auto truck. There were too many firemen on the truck and the dog's place was needed, so he was dropped off. The dog was running beside the truck when he got under the wheels.

The fire was the result of a gasoline stove exploding. The damage done was estimated at $5.

Neighbors Turn in Alarm. Neighbors of W. J. Harris, 1017 Montana street, Thursday night at 8:30 Montana street, Thursday night at 8:30 oclock turned in an alarm for a fire at his residence. The Mesa fire department and acting chief John T. Sullivan, in the chief's automobile, responded. They discovered trash which was burning in a trash can. The neighbors saw the smoke going up from the cause and thought Mr. Harris's house was on fire.
